Where ideas work

The BC Public Service is the largest employer in the province with over 26,000 employees and more than 200 distinct fields of occupation. Employees work in all geographic regions in a diversity of ministries and agencies. For the last several years, Mediacorp Canada Inc. has recognized BC Public Service as one of Canada's Top 100 employers and offers outstanding career growth and learning opportunities. The BC Public Service strives to meet the expectations of a changing workforce. Employees have many opportunities to develop professionally and build strong ties with local communities.

Diversity, Inclusion and Respect

The BC Public Service is committed to recruit and develop a well qualified and efficient public service that is representative of the diversity of the people of British Columbia. To support employment equity and diversity in the workplace, we welcome applications from all groups. This includes women, visible minorities, Indigenous Peoples, persons with disabilities, persons of diverse sexual orientation, gender identity or expression (LGBTQ2S+), and others who may contribute to diversity in the BC Public Service. We also recognize unique styles, perspectives, beliefs and creativity that support a diverse, respectful, inclusive and collaborative work environment.
